Iykkelig Mai! Iykkelig dag!

Happy May! Happy Day! So, maybe that isn't the way you would really say it....that's what Google Translate gave me. I'm thinking maybe it would be just "god mai! god dag!" ?? After many Tuesday evenings at Jill Storlie and Brit Eddy's "Norwegian for Travelers" class, I know a little Norwegian, but I believe it takes a life time to learn a language. So I will continue to show up to Tuesday evening class with my phrase book in hand and hope to familiarize myself with a few more Norwegian words and have a pleasant evening visiting with my classmates. Thank you Jill and Britt for offering the opportunity for me as well as others to try and broaden our Norwegian language skills as well as learn more about Norway.

Of course as time passes, many Sons of Norway events are on the horizon. Here are some fast approaching events:

Sytteende Mai Royalty Tea, May 9th:

In conjunction with Sytten Mai and Glants of the Earth, Valheim Lodge helped provide a Saturday morning tea for the Sytten Mai royalty candidates for 2015 as well as the judges and the outgoing royalty. At the last board meeting, we had several volunteers step forward to donate Norwegian baked goods as well as volunteer to help on the 9th. See photos on page 7.

May Regular Monthly Meeting, May 14th:

Come and hear the story of the brave men of the Coulee Region "Iron Brigade" in the Civil War presented by David Glomstad of LaCrescent. Our business meeting will be at 7:00 pm, program and lunch to follow at the Spring Grove Legion on Thursday May 14th.

Spring Grove SYTTENDE MAI Fest, MAY 16

Join in all the festivities in Spring Grove! Our Lodge will be at the Spring Grove American Legion 9:00-noon and after the Parade until 4:30 on Saturday, May 16.

Bake Sale/Demonstrations/Displays

We are asking all members to donate baked goods for the Bake Sale. Please have your items to the Legion by 8:30 a.m. on Saturday morning packaged and priced. If you have any questions about the Bake Sale, please contact Janet Fossum, Judy Melbostad or Karen Fried.

We have several people lined up for demonstrations of food, and some for other demonstrations, but we would really like more. If you would like to demonstrate something, or have a display, please let Karen or Lee know. Let's see if we can make this the best Sytten Mai yet!

The Grand Parade is at 1:30 pm

Once again we are asking whoever can, please ride in the boat for the parade. Wear a bunad, a red vest or something Norwegian. As of now, the plan is to load near the Legion about 12:30. If you board at the Legion, you will be dropped off at the Legion after the parade. A great Cruise Around Town!

SKÅL TO AQUAVIT MADE IN THE USA

When you think of aquavit you probably think of Norway's Linie Aquavit, the most widely available in the US, right? Well did you know there are several aquavits on the market that are distilled right here in the United States? Derived from the words aqua vitae, Latin for water of life, aquavit is a popular Scandinavian liquor and Norway's national drink. Typically yellowish in tint and distilled with grain or potatoes, the liquor is spiced with a variety of herbs including caraway, cardamom, cumin, anise, fennel, and citrus peel. Here are four of the more prominent American made Aquavits:

Vikre Ørevann – Based in Duluth, Minnesota, Vikre Distillery creates their liquor with local grains and some Northwood's love. Literally translated to upper water, Ørevann is a light aquavit with strong caraway and cardamom flavors. Vikre says their "Rich and aromatic, Ørevann Aquavit is piquant and refreshing to sip alongside smoked fish or to cut the fat after a heavy holiday meal." To learn more visit their webpage at www.vikredistillery.com.

Dill Aquavit – Distilled in New Richmond, Wisconsin

sin at the 45th Parallel Distillery for Gamle Ode based in Minneapolis, Minnesota. This spirit is Gamle Ode's (Norwegian for old ode) most popular aquavit because of its unique refreshing flavor and versatile pairings options. Infused with fresh dill, caraway seed and juniper berry this aquavit is sure to catch you by pleasant surprise. Learn more at www.gamleode.com.

Aquavit – Private Reserve – Distilled by North Shore Distillery, just north of Chicago, Illinois, this private reserve aquavit is spicy and savory at all once. With a hint of the oak barrel it ages in, the yellowish spirit has been described as "Incredibly smooth and seductively aromatic" (SpiritsReview.com) and "Rich, full-bodied and complex." (Imbibe Magazine). Read more at www.northshoredistillery.com.

Krogstad Aquavit – Distilled by House Spirits Distillery in Portland, Oregon's famous Distillery Row, Krogstad Aquavit is crafted with ethically sourced ingredients. House Spirits Distillery crafts Krogstad so it can be enjoyed on its own, with ice, or in a cocktail. They even offer recipes for a Norwegian Bloody Mary or a Scandinavian Evening cocktail. Get the recipes at www.housespirits.com. Each having their own distinct flavors, these distilleries are building up a Scandinavian tradition for America to adopt and enjoy.

Matlyst Monthly Sugar Cookie Dessert Pizza

adapted from allrecipes.com, yields 10-12 servings

- | | |
|---------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| • ½ cup butter, softened | • ½ cup sugar |
| • 1 large egg | • 1¼ cups all-purpose flour |
| • 1 tsp cream of tartar | • ½ tsp baking powder |
| • ¼ tsp salt | |
| • 1 package of cream cheese | • 8 oz whipped topping, thawed |
| • 2 tsps vanilla extract | • ¼ cup confectioners' sugar |
| • assortment of favorite fruits | |

Tips: Arrange your favorite red and blue berries on top of the pizza to make a festive flag design for Syttende Mai! Pressed for time? Instead of making the cookie crust from scratch, substitute prepackaged sugar cookie dough.

Preheat oven to 350 degrees F. Cream together butter and ½ cup sugar in a large bowl until smooth. Add egg and mix. In a separate bowl combine flour, cream of tartar, baking soda and salt and add to creamed mixture until well blended. Press cookie dough into an ungreased pizza pan*. Bake for roughly 8 to 10 minutes or until lightly browned. While the crust cools, beat cream cheese, whipped topping and ¼ cup confectioners' sugar and vanilla until light and fluffy. Spread on cooled cookie crust. Cut crust into desired serving portions. Add fresh fruit to the top of the crust, making sure excess liquid is removed from fruit beforehand. Chill until ready to serve.

*Double crust to make a 9"x13" dessert pizza.

Board Meeting Sons of Norway
Meeting notes by Secretary Jill Storlie

with members Judy Melbostad, Janet Fossum, Audrey Almo, Bill Fried, Jill Storlie, Lee Grippen, Karen Fried President, Jill Storlie Secretary. Sunday April 19th is our choice for the Sons of Norway Heritage Events at Giants. A special heritage event highlighting the opening of the Synnove Nordkapp history panel exhibit at the Heritage Center from mid April – end of May. If this is successful we may be interested in an annual event for recruiting.

Food and beverages will be served. We will have a Free Will offering for this. We all liked the idea of buying lefse and buying polser from Red's IGA for Varme Pølser. Flat bread, rosettes, doughnuts, .

Lee will pick up lefse in Rushford just before the event. The number of rounds he will buy will be decided later. Karen Friend will talk to Red about the pølser. Jill mentioned heart waffles too to a nice and that sounded possible as well. Serve those cold or warm with sour cream, syttetøy (jam), whipped cream etc to roll and eat.

To calculate how many Lee should order and pick up, we plan to cut rounds into 8s. We also want to serve lefse with butter too. There are 25 rounds in a box (we think).

We hope to also use the back patio at the Heritage center if the weather permits. The plan for food would be standing space to eat in the heritage hall not sit down with tables.

We also should advertise our FLATBREAD DAY the next weekend. Otherwise we should change the Flatbread Day to April 11 so we make food for this event. We have decided to change Flatbread Day to April 11 with April 25 as a backup.

The next board meeting is April 1, 2015 at Giants Heritage Center at 4:30 pm.

Jill has not received the details about the request to help host the Syttende Mai royalty tea with the judges and some staff. We await information from Michelle Jahnke.

16th May demonstrations were discussed with some possibilities.

9th May update Michelle Jahnke just called and she requests Sat May 9. Am 9-12 to reserve for the tea for the candidates and judges and likely the 2014 Royalty.

Midsummer in Norway

Historical Roots

St. John's Day or Jonsok is celebrated on June 24 and is a religious holiday commemorating the birth of St. John the Baptist. Prior to the introduction of Christianity to Norway, the date was used to celebrate of the summer solstice, the longest and brightest day of the year. Because of the dual history surrounding the date, the remaining Midsummer traditions are an amalgamation of both Pagan and Christian customs.

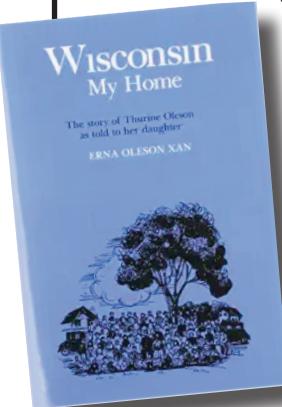

Did you know?

- The practice of lighting bonfires during Midsummer comes from the belief that fire "awakens" the ground for the next growing season and gives renewed strength to the sun. It was also believed to scare away evil supernatural spirits and witches who were thought to roam more freely this time of year.
- According to folklore, medicinal plants and herbs were believed to be at their peak potency during the summer solstice, lending support to the belief that supernatural beings were prone to scour the countryside collecting ingredients for their potions at Midsummer.
- In the 19th century it was popular in western Norway for children to dress in bride and groom outfits and participate in mock weddings as a symbol of new life.
- According to Christian legends, the crucifix at Rødal stave church in Norway was believed to contain special powers. During Midsummer, the crucifix was said to sweat, giving off healing power to those who touched it. Devotees made annual pilgrimages to the church up until 1840.
- St. John's Day was observed as a public holy day in Norway until 1771.
- The most popular foods consumed on Midsummer's Eve are fire roasted items like hot dogs or pølse and picnic fare such as pickled herring, smoked salmon or open-faced sandwiches. Norwegian strawberries and rømmegrøt are also common treats.
- In celebration of Midsummer the Norwegian town of Ålesund constructed a massive bonfire of wooden palettes, topping out at 132.71 feet, in 2010.

NEW LAND, NEW LIFE!

Norwegian Immigration in Minnesota: 1825 - 1925

Sons of Norway, Synnøve-Nordkap Lodge from St.Paul developed a traveling display of 20 informational panels featuring Norwegian immigrant life. These panels will be on exhibit and open daily during regular business hours at Giants of the Earth Heritage Center in Spring Grove. On April 19 Valheim Lodge co-sponsored an opening reception with Giants in honor of having these panels. The panels will be at Giants until the end of June. Be sure to stop by and see them. They are in three of the second story rooms at Giants of the Earth Heritage Center, 163, W. Main St in Spring Grove. At the reception we had lots of great food; a great time to visit with friends; ribbon cutting done by Ron Stow from SynnøveNordkap Lodge and music was provided by our own Audrey Almo.
